Product Description

Notoginseng Folium P.E CAS 80418-29-7

Description

Notoginseng Folium P.E (Panax notoginseng folium extract) is derived from the leaves of Panax notoginseng, a traditional medicinal herb widely used in herbal remedies. This extract contains various bioactive compounds, including ginsenosides, flavonoids, and polysaccharides. In cosmetic formulations, Notoginseng Folium P.E is valued for its potential benefits in promoting skin health. It is known to have antioxidant properties, helping to protect the skin from free radicals and environmental damage. The extract supports skin rejuvenation and helps maintain a youthful and radiant complexion. Additionally, Notoginseng Folium P.E is believed to have soothing and anti-inflammatory effects, making it beneficial for calming sensitive or irritated skin.

Application

Anti-Aging Skincare: Notoginseng Folium P.E is commonly used in anti-aging skincare products, such as serums, creams, and lotions, to combat oxidative stress and promote skin rejuvenation. Skin-Brightening Formulations: The extract is included in products designed to brighten and even out skin tone, resulting in a more radiant and youthful complexion. Natural Skincare: Notoginseng Folium P.E is a sought-after ingredient in natural and organic skincare formulations that prioritize the use of plant-based and eco-friendly materials.
